The Temples of Paestum

Past and Present

Project Number: 2019-1-IT02-KA229-063301

The past

At the end of the 7th century BC, the citizens of the Magna Graecia city of Sibari travelled from one sea to the other, perhaps guided by Poseidon, the sea god: hence the possible origin of the name of the city they founded, Poseidonia.

The Present

The “Metamorphosis” is a video installation that uses the Temple of Neptune as a screen-canvas.

“water becomes stone ... stone submerged by water water that returns, transforms...”

By the moving image and the spectacular nature of videomapping, the goal is to show the power of nature and the risks we face due to global warming.

The Present

Interesting concerts and singing meetings occur at night in the splendid Archaeological Park of Paestum.

The world of literature and theater, which have in common love of poetry take place in the park.

"Glaukos" means bright in the ancient Greek language and wants to recall the explosive force of light that has always contrasted and pushed away the darkness.

The Present

A strong similarity and a vigorous message of hope and rebirth for the whole world against the difficulties caused by coronavirus pandemic.
